

BEING EXPLOITED AT WORK?

Know your rights: Serious exploitation at work may be a crime.

Bad treatment at work can be a crime. Slavery, forced labour, human trafficking, and debt bondage are all crimes in Australia. For more information or access to free confidential legal assistance please contact Anti-Slavery Australia.

Phone: (+61 2) 9514 8115 | Email: antislavery@uts.edu.au | facebook.com/AntiSlaveryOz | antislavery.org.au

SLAVERY HAPPENS HERE IN AUSTRALIA

ANTI-SLAVERY
AUSTRALIA
WORKING TO ABOLISH SLAVERY

CITY OF SYDNEY

UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY SYDNEY

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

Bad treatment at work can be a crime. Slavery, forced labour, human trafficking, and debt bondage are all crimes in Australia.

INDICATORS OF EXPLOITATION

- Forced to work
 - Abused or frightened by your boss
 - Threatened or hurt at work
 - Working in an unsafe place
 - Not being allowed to leave your place of work or leave your job
 - Living at work
 - Not allowed to talk to other people at work
 - Not being paid properly
 - Being paid differently to other people doing the same job
 - Working long hours with few days off
 - Having a large debt that you have to pay back
 - Not being able to see a doctor or go to a hospital
 - Promised one kind of work but have to do different work
 - Your passport and other personal documents are kept by your employer and you are not allowed to have them when you want them
-

HOW TO GET HELP?

You are not alone and you can get help.

If you or someone you know is being exploited, Anti-Slavery Australia can give free and confidential legal advice. We can also refer you to other agencies for help.

For further information about your work rights and entitlements contact the Fair Work Ombudsman on 13 13 94.

In emergencies or if you are in immediate danger call Triple 0 (000). To report a possible crime of exploitation call the Australian Federal Police on 131 237 (131 AFP)

Phone: (+61 2) 9514 8115 | Email: antislavery@uts.edu.au | facebook.com/AntiSlaveryOz | antislavery.org.au